How to create your own account or accounts for others at your organization:

Go to my.amga.org and click on Don't have an account?

After clicking Don't have an account? you will complete the form to create an account. For Primary Affiliation, start to type in your organization name (SoNE HEALTH). The system will begin to give suggestions for which organization you should select. This step is important because it will connect you or the person you are creating the account for with your organization. You must select SoNE HEALTH.

In the Security & Login section, add the email address and create a password. The email address will be the username for the account. Passwords must include 8 characters and have at least one number.

You must complete fields ending with *.
